

RLPA Membership Meeting Friday, June 26

Emergency Management Presentation as of August 1 - New Law Takes Effect

Learn what some retailers are doing to prepare for natural disasters and how to partner with various agencies in North and South Carolina as it relates to Emergency Management.

Presenters:

Jim Trone, Natural Plans Manager
South Carolina Emergency Management Division

Brandon Spence, Small Business Ombudsman
Business Services Division
SC Department of Commerce

John Kay Dorman, Assistant Emergency Management Director
Geospatial and Technology Management
NC Division of Emergency Management

Other Presentations:

Disaster Preparedness

Tim Shipman will discuss updated information as the 2009 hurricane season approaches.

Prevent Organized Retail Theft (PORT)

Moe McKnight, Director of Loss Prevention of Lowes Foods will share the details of the PORT project.

2009 Legislative Update

Andy Ellen, General Counsel, NCRMA, will share legislative updates that are effecting the Retail Industry.

Information Sharing

Please bring your current investigating materials (photos, video, etc.) to share with other LP members.

Meeting Begins: 10:00 am

Meeting Ends: 1:00 pm

Lunch will be served

Contact Kristin Hicks at:
kristinh@ncrma.org

Sign Up Now

Meeting Location

Kerr Drug Training Center
3220 Spring Forest Road
Raleigh, NC 27616

The Kerr Drug training center is located beside the Allstate drive-thru claims building at 3100 Spring Forest Road, across the parking lot from the Kerr Drug corporate office

>Directions to Kerr Drug